DEBOULEE AND THE "LEAGUE."

So much has been said in the French dispatches of late about the "Patriotic League" that it will be of interest to learn just what it is that the French Republic has condemned. For there can be no question about this action being a very important event in the history-making now going on in France. Paul Deroulle is the nephew of M. Emile Augier. He is a poet, was a soldier, and is a man of brilliant imagination. His "Chants du Soldat" won him the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

Ten years ago his songs became very popular in France, and so continue,

for they have responded to the sore hurt of the reverses of French arms. The young man was an Imperialist at heart, but was forced to conceal his real sentiments

in the early days of the Republic.

Nevertheless he became a great admirer of Gambetta, and the latter saw how useful the fiery poet could be made to his fortunes. The poet had for years cherished the idea of a league or brotherhood of Frenchmen, to foster athletic games and exercises, with a view to bettering the physique of the men who must become under a Republic, the defenders of France, in fact, the chief element of her armies. Behind this purpose was the secret one of keeping alive the idea of the recovery of the lost provinces that Germany wrested from France in 1870-1. Deroulle finally organized his League, and it "took" at once, and in a few months had a monster membership.

Nearly all the men in the present administration were a few years ago members of the organization. The founder of the league was greatly depressed by the death of Gambetta in 1882, and gradually fell into the ways of the Radicals.

When the Tonquin difficulty came on,

the poet lamented that the treasures and the soldiers of France were being wasted in

"a silly foreign policy," and would not be comforted by Minister Ferry, who insisted that the Tonquin policy was a necessity,

and that France must maintain her assemblies in Cochinchina and advance her commercial interests in that and other directions. It was no use; Deroulle looked upon the Cabinet as the enemy of his country, and denounced Ferry as a traitor, and much through his influence

the downfall of the Ministry was brought about. The League in the main has taken its political color from its founder and leader, and so it too

became embittered against the Presidents, and the Cabinets they named. But it was very wise in its method and preached only

"peace, order and liberty," though all the while cultivating among the people the hope of the recovery of Alsace and Lorraine. This work bore its fruit, and as the German hand more and more pressed on the French spirit, tongue and thought in those provinces, the more bitter became the League in denouncing Germany, and the more mournful in weeping over the losses of France.

In 1886, the Freycinet Ministry of Moderate-Radicals came into power, and among other things picked up the youngest

General in the army and made him Minister

TEN TO FIVE.

The Stockton Wipe the Diamond With

the Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11th.—Oakland played winning ball up to the fifth inning

today, when Stockton took a batting streak

and hit Fudge at will, putting up the run in the fifth and sixth innings, although a foolish throw by Fudge let in three runs.

The Stocktons were good ball, Baker was touched up rather badly by their infielded good work. O'Neill was at short,

and no trouble occurred with Umpire

Sims. The score is as follows:

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING.

MRS. SMITH'S STORY OF HER SWAP WITH HARLOW.

How She Came to Part with Her El Dorado Property—A Deed that Does Not Materialize.

The examination of W. P. Harlow, charged by Mrs. Martha E. Smith with obtaining property by false pretenses, came before Justice Devine yesterday afternoon. The prosecution was represented by Grove L. Johnson, Albert M. and Hiram W. Johnson and Deputy District Attorney Brown, and the defense by A. L. Hart.

The complainant testified that she had known the defendant three or four years. In February last she resided near Mud Springs, El Dorado county.

Being asked if she owned the land on which she lived in that county, the defense objected, and the question of title to real estate could not be proven by parole testimony, and held that the deed to the same should be produced in evidence.

Mr. Johnson argued that the question of title was not actually involved, as in a case where title was disputed.

Attorney Hart held that the title to the property alleged to have been acquired by Harlow did not carry a very important figure in the case, as, if the complainant did not own the property, the charge against Harlow fell.

THE ROCKLIN RANCH.

The objection was overruled, and witness went on to say that she met Harlow in the city in February last and informed him that her property was involved, and that she was afraid to leave her home. Harlow said he had 80 acres of land near Rocklin, Placer county, which he would deed to her, with $500 cash, in exchange for her El Dorado property, and that he would give her a Government title to it. An appointment was made to visit and examine the Placer property. The day after Harlow, George Smith and witness went to Rocklin and saw the property alleged to have been owned by Harlow. The following day witness, Harlow and Smith met at the Pacific Hotel, and from there went to the office of Hugh H. Devine, the deeds to the property to be exchanged.

They repaired to the place mentioned, and witness made and executed to Harlow deeds to her two El Dorado ranches. Harlow then paid witness $100 of the money, and said that it was getting late in the day they would not wait for the deed to be made to her Placer county property, but that he would take it to her in El Dorado, with the balance of the money.

The next day Harlow came to the ranch, but did not bring the deed. He paid $100, retaining $10 for attorney's expenses, and the property was turned over to him. Harlow has not yet made over any deed to the 80 acres near Rocklin.

COULD GIVE NO DEED.

Four weeks later witness met Harlow and asked him for the deed. He said the property was in litigation, and that he could give no deed at present. Witness then asked him to give her a bond for a deed, and this he declined. The last time the witness spoke to Harlow he said she was in a good way to get a deed, but he never told her he did not own the land near Rocklin.

PROPERTY WORTH UPWARD OF $5,000.

On cross-examination witness told of her affairs in El Dorado county, and said she owned $5,000 in her two farms, comprising 400 acres. On one farm is a house, barn, winery, blacksmith shop, and other buildings, and on the other a house and barn. Witness said she had known Harlow for upward of a year, and that she thought she had never mentioned to him that she desired to sell her place prior to February last. In a conversation with him in the latter month he said he had eight acres in Placer county, and would deed it to her, and that he had a deed to the El Dorado lands, but witness had doubts as to the validity of the deed. It was about four weeks ago that Harlow told her he was in litigation. He said nothing about it before the trial.

ON REDIRECT EXAMINATION WITNESS SAID HER HUSBAND PAID UPWARD OF $5,000 FOR THE PROPERTY.

George H. Smith testified that he was the present husband of the complainant, and was with her on the visit to Placer county, and when the deeds were delivered to Harlow in El Dorado county. Witness testified to Harlow having repeated his offer while on the Rocklin ranch—to exchange his land, with a clear title, and $500 for Mrs. Smith's El Dorado property. According to witness estimate, one of the El Dorado farms is worth from $25 to $30 per acre, and the other from $10 to $15.

BEING RECALLED, Mrs. Smith testified that she had paid her husband $5,000 for the property.

Being recalled, Mrs. Smith testified that she had paid her husband $5,000 for the property. She said she had paid him $5,000 for the property, and that he had paid her $5,000 for the property. She said she had paid him $5,000 for the property, and that he had paid her $5,000 for the property.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON TESTIFIED TO HAVING HAD A CONVERSATION WITH HARLOW IN WHICH HE SAID HE HAD A DEED TO 80 ACRES, A HOMESTEAD EASY NEAR ROCKLIN, AND THAT IT WAS ALL THE TITLE HE HAD TO IT.

On cross-examination each stated that Harlow said the property was in litigation with the railroad company, and that any deed he might give would be of no value; also, that he had explained the whole state of Mr. Smith.

BY CROSS-EXAMINATION WITNESS TESTIFIED THAT AT 4:30 O'CLOCK P. M. UNTIL 10:30 THIS MORNING.

THE OTHER SIDE.

It is understood that the defense will undertake to prove that Mrs. Smith desired her property to Harlow with the full understanding that he could not give her title to the Placer county property, and that she accepted $500—over and above the $5,000 mortgage on her property—for the same. It is also understood that the defense has a number of witnesses who will testify to the purpose of attacking the character and standing of the complainant.

DURING THE HEARING YESTERDAY COUNSEL FOR THE PROSECUTION OBJECTED SHARPLY TO THE REMARKS MADE BY HARLOW WHILE Mrs. Smith WAS ON THE STAND, AND THAT THE JUDGE CALLEDLY DECLARED THAT SUCH CONDUCT HAD TO STOP. IT WAS ALSO FOUND NECESSARY TO REPRIMAND THE ATTORNEYS, WHO GOT INTO A HEATED DISCUSSION OVER THE MATTER.

HEALTHY TOWNS.

A MARKED REDUCTION IN STATE MORTALITY.

The Lowest Death Rate of any State in the Union—Influx of Consumptives—Etc.

Dr. Tyrrell, Secretary of the State Board of Health, has issued his report for March, from which the following extracts are made:

Reports of mortality received from seventy-four localities, with an estimated population of 741,500, give, in the aggregate, 97 deaths, which is a percentage of 1.31 per thousand in the month, or an annual death rate of 14.88 per annum. If we compare this percentage with that of any other State within the Union, we will at once begin to realize the salubrity of our climate and the lessened tendency to death that exists within its borders. There is hardly a State that can be named whose death rate for the month of March comes within 1 per cent. of our average, and when we reflect that 1 per cent. means ten thousand lives spared in each million persons per annum, no longer wonder at the large number of emigrants that seek our shores.

The following towns report no deaths in March: Bodie, Dixon, Downville, Livermore, Wheatland, North Bloomfield, Rocklin, Roseville, Lincoln, and Georgetown.

PREVAILING DISEASES.

Reports of sickness from seventy-nine localities show a remarkable absence of any epidemic, or indeed of any prevailing disease, if we may except pneumonia, bronchitis and influenza, which were very general in their distribution, but of a mild and sporadic character. The temperature of the month being much warmer than that of the corresponding month of the year, the rainfall being somewhat in excess, may have had a modifying influence upon the prevalence of these diseases, as it has been clearly shown that the prevalence of coughs, colds, bronchitis and rheumatic affections depends very much upon temperature, a low temperature being conducive to their frequency, an increase of temperature lessening their prevalence.

BUCKLEY'S BUREAU.

It Disposes of Vagrants and Other Public Nuisances.

More than a score of cases adorned the calendar in the Police Court yesterday, and the judge, Billy Scott, John Williams, Ed Rand, Mike O'Keefe, James Emery, Albert Kershaw, Barney Hughes, James Emery and Robert Devere, who were gathered in by officers Rider and Arlington as vagrants, were each sent to the County Jail for sixty days, and they will doubtless spend their time in the chain-gang.

Captain Dozier, a companion of the above-named gang, was too sick to be present in the Courtroom, and he will be dealt with to-day. He says he will plead guilty to murder or anything else they want him to.

James Clark, charged with being a vagrant, outranked the other unfortunates, and upon promise of going to work he was discharged.

Manie Cummings and El Norris, arrested on a charge of vagrancy, were committed to the County Jail for sixty days.

Lonia Kinsler, charged with a misdemeanor, had her case set for April 18th.

John Dozier, charged with being a vagrant, was committed to the County Jail for sixty days.

That ancient sinner, John Doe, paid $7.50 for being drunk, and was allowed to depart.

"Bat" Roach, a street laborer, got into a quarrel with a street companion, and the result was that the latter had him arrested and charged with disturbing the peace. He was found guilty, and will receive sentence to-morrow.

Winnie Brown pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy, and was committed to the County Jail for sixty days.

The charge of vagrancy was committed to the County Jail for sixty days.

Mary Cummings, a pal of Winnie's, was sentenced to thirty days in the County Jail for being a vagrant.

A. J. McNeice and George Fairfield, two more vagrants latched in the same incident, were committed to the County Jail for sixty days.

SCHOOLS FOR LITTLE "TOTS."

Opening of the Margarette Society's Kindergarten.

There was opened yesterday in this city the first free kindergarten, and an enterprise was thereby inaugurated which is so far our city's reform in primary education equal to that which is being wrought for San Francisco under the superb charity of Mrs. Stanford and other philanthropists.

The labor union, which the Margarette Society established two years ago by Rev. Mr. Merrill—has expended in laying the foundation for this work can be but partially comprehended, save by those who have sought to agitate the public and gain its ear for new reforms. This work of agitation and education during the past two years has been most faithfully carried on by the society, and the school now opened is but the beginning of a large work for the poor of our city.

The school is at Twenty-third and K streets, where they have a corner lot, forty feet front and running to the alley, paid for by the society. The building is a simple one, and everything has been slowly but surely done to make the work a permanent one for our city.

Miss Pullman, a thorough and highly educated kindergarten from Oakland, is the teacher. The school opens with a large attendance, and in a few days will have all the pupils that can be cared for, and stay being all that can be accomplished.

ANOTHER ON MONDAY.

The free kindergarten, to be conducted under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be opened at Perry's Seminary on Monday, the 15th inst.

Sergeant Barwick Asked if He Would Like a Change of Climate.

Sergeant Barwick has received a letter from General Greely, the Chief Signal Officer, saying that the latter had been on this station over three years, and wanting to know if there is any desire on Barwick's part for a change of station on account of health. The sergeant, who is a native of New York, is now 30, asking what station he would prefer.

The Sergeant's answer was that he was ordered here eight years ago from Alpena, Mich., on a doctor's certificate, on account of the climate being too severe in the North for him, and that since his residence in this city his health has been very good, and that he has gained fifteen pounds over his Michigan weight, and that he does not desire a change, if it can be possibly avoided.

A Lively Saloon Row.

Last evening a quarrel took place in the Postoffice Saloon between George Blunt, a colored bootblack, and Mike Hickey, who carries a living by washing harness in the different livery stables. According to the bartender's statement, Blunt came in and asked for change for a half-dollar. Hickey also entered, being quite drunk at the time, and made a remark to Blunt, which he took as an insult. Blunt then struck Hickey on the nose, and the latter, who was very angry, struck Blunt on the head with a bottle. The injured man was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his wound was dressed.

Hickey entered a charge of assault with a deadly weapon against his antagonist, claiming that the latter used a knife. Several parties in the saloon who saw the affair contradicted this statement, however, that any weapon was used.

While it is rather early to attempt to forecast the yield of this year's hay crop, the prospect is that it will be large. The young vines in this county are strong and healthy, and the acreage about the same as last year.

Russell Harrison.

He is Arrested for Libel and Gives Bond for His Appearance.

New York, April 11th.—Russell Harrison was arrested yesterday on a complaint of ex-Governor Crosby of Montana for publication of an alleged libel in Harrison's paper, the Montana Stock Journal. He was released on $10,000 bond.

The bondsman is Elkins, Arkell and Vice-President Rice of the Park Bank.

Russell Harrison was asked by the present time. The facts and evidence will be given to the public in the coming days. I will be able to show conclusively that I had nothing to do with the instigation of the story published, and did not learn of it until after it had been published in the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

William A. Sweetzer, Harrison's attorney, said the considerable delay in bringing the action, and then instituting suit in a local court where the action would never have been known had it not been brought to the public notice by Crosby himself, are matters which will be fully explained in the coming days.

Mr. Harrison disclaims all liability or responsibility in the matter, his only connection with it being a cause for hatred on the part of Harrison, and states that after he had resigned the position of Governor and was a resident of Montana, he was removed from Brady Wilkins, formerly Crosby's private secretary, and was in position in the essay office at Helena, without making charges against him. Through the influence of Crosby Wilkins was reinstated, and he alleges that this created an animosity on the part of the defendant towards him.

Appended to the complaint is a letter from one Leslie Fulgore, formerly editor of the Montana paper, disclaiming personal responsibility for the appearance of the libelous matter and asserting that Harrison and lawyer McCutcheon of Helena caused its publication.

Delany Hicoll, counsel for ex-Governor Crosby, says: "Notwithstanding Harrison's statement to the contrary, we are prepared to prove the libelous publication was at his personal instance. The Montana Journal had only reprinted the story from the Buffalo Commercial, but added an outrageous attack upon Crosby's official and personal character, in which he was named as the person anonymously referred to in the 'Commercial's' article." He has the original manuscript of that article in the handwriting of Isaac D. McCutcheon, Harrison's lawyer, and also has the written consent of Leslie Hicoll, at the time the editor of the Journal, that Harrison is directly responsible for the publication. Houston did not object, saying anything in advance of the Court proceedings, beyond that he had nothing to do with instigating the libelous article.
